
ONEALDWYCH

Welcome to our cultured independent hotel at the beating heart of London life.

One Aldwych is one of the very few hotels in London, (or indeed the world) that can say it is truly independent. This is our home, and everything we create and curate is for the delight of our guests in this singular beautiful building, at the centre of Covent Garden, London's most exciting neighbourhood.

The building's art nouveau curves sit easily with the modern luxuries of this contemporary, forward-thinking hotel. Designed to be more than just a place to lay your head, One Aldwych embraces a stylish character ready to host, cocoon and enchant. Art is an integral part of the hotel's interiors, with original pieces in every room and suite, a part of the 400-strong private collection of the hotel's contemporary art.

Dining & Private Events

Indigo

Our signature restaurant is a neighbourhood jewel famed for flavour. Overseen by Head Chef Dominic Teague, Indigo's menu exemplifies his penchant for British ingredients crafted into delicious dishes with a touch of imagination.

Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Indigo Afternoon Tea

Working to Chef Dominic's brief, teatime is distinctively British with a tempting twist. Classic scones sit next to chocolate interpretations served with rich ganache, and lemon and black sesame cake is topped with honeycomb made with honey from the rooftop bees.

Saturday & Sunday afternoon

The Lobby Bar

A London institution, our bar is a dynamic drinking destination at the corner of Covent Garden, known for exquisite and inventive signature cocktails crafted by our master mixologists.

Daily from breakfast until the early hours

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

For those who like their tea served with a dash of eccentricity, this Afternoon Tea is inspired by Roald Dahl's famous story. Fizzy lifting drinks, snozzberry jam, chocolate swudge milkshake and fluffy floss; boxes stacked high of wondrous treats seem to be never-ending.

Wednesday to Sunday

The Library

Our elegant guest-only lounge is located on the ground floor of the hotel. With sofas to sink into and an array of beautiful books, it is the perfect spot for a quiet coffee after a day in London, or a calm space to get some work done.

Daily from breakfast until the early hours

Available for private events and chic cocktail parties.

Wellness

The Health Club is home to a discreet and spacious gym, fitted with the latest technical equipment from Technogym and Peloton, free weights and stretching space. Our biggest secret is our chlorine-free 18m/60ft lap pool for an underwater experience without the usual harsh chemicals, as well as a sauna and steam room.

Our spa treatments are an indulgence for body and mind. Therapists approach each session as a highly-personalised ritual, with products from the Spanish skincare specialist, Natura Bissé and the leading British skincare brand, OSKIA.

Sustainability

Since we opened our doors in 1998, One Aldwych has had an innate sense of responsibility for the environment and world around us. We strive to lead and innovate with beehives on our roof and energy saving features such as heat reclaim and water efficiency. Our passion for preserving the environment influences all of our operational decisions, although we appreciate there is always more that can be done. We are dedicated to continually seeking to evolve and improve, and we empower the hotel's entire team to suggest new ideas.
